Reading/Writing Focus for the Quarter: Close Reading, Main Idea and Key Details, Supporting Ideas with Evidence from the Text, Organization, Capitalization, Punctuation, and Spelling

EUREKA MATH

We will wrap up Module 2 the first week of November, and students will take their Module 3 Pre-Assessment before beginning Module 3 and studying fractions.

WIT & WISDOM

We completed our journey with Chief Joseph and Sound of Running Feet before Fall Break, and we began Module 2: Wordplay. This week, we started reading The Phantom Tollbooth. So get ready to hear about the fun!

WRITING

Students will learn how to write Narratives, and they will write their first ever wordplay narrative next week! Leading up to Winter Break, students will be writing both narrative and informational essays while conducting literary analyses.

HOMEWORK

Each night, Monday-Friday, students will have the following homework assignments:

- ☆ Read for 30 minutes AND write a 1-paragraph Reading Response.
- ☆ Complete the assigned Math Sheet.
- ☆ Finish any classwork which was not completed during the day.
